

concept

At the beginning of this project, I watched a movie called Love in bouquet Form, which tells a love story of two lovers. Their love, once bright as a bouquet of flowers, will wither and die. Every serious couple has to think about this question, whether it's over or not, everything that happens in a relationship is precious. I want to do a project to recall the good past and to look forward to the future life

Research

In this film, there are many illustrations. The author is ~ε (I'm back). I tried this style and drew four scenes in the movie with a needle pen
